

Dear SOIS Friends

Greetings of the new academic year! Our School of Information Studies is seeing robust enrollments and excellent new and returning students, all on paths toward careers in information services. Our main focus this year once the early semester dust has settled will be our involvement in a self-study process associated with our American Library Association accreditation for our MLIS degree. This year-long process involves input from various constituents, including current students and alumni, as we gather and present evidence addressing the Glena Temple, former president of Viterbo University and a veteran of higher education leadership as well as a scholar in botany and plant sciences, has been named Dominican 11th president. The Dominican University Board of Trustees approved appointment in a unanimous vote. She took office on August 2nd, succeeding Donna M. Carroll, who served as president since 1994. It has been exciting to see the completion of this transition with her new presence on campus!

Meet Andreya Costello, the 2021 Recipient of the Butler Youth Services Scholarship for Underrepresented Groups in the Field of Library Science. Andreya earned her undergraduate degree in International Studies from Georgia Southern University in 2015. Since then, she has relocated to South Korea to teach English as a foreign language to children. There, she discovered her passion for encouraging literacy in young learners. She looks forward to expanding her studies through the [REDACTED] sially e [REDACTED] learn more about Youth Services. She aspires to one day work
